

Tim Riitters

CFO

Tim Riitters serves as CFO for Pure Storage, and leads the company's financial and accounting operations worldwide. Tim joins Pure Storage from Google, where he spent 10 years in finance and was responsible for overseeing the company's annual planning and budgeting processes. Additionally, he led the finance team responsible for predicting revenue trends and increasing revenue opportunities. Earlier in his career at Google, Tim was based in Dublin, Ireland and oversaw the company's European financial operations, and served as CFO of its European payments business.

Prior to Google, Tim served as a product manager in Siebel Systems' business intelligence applications group and helped this team drive triple digit year over year growth in revenue. Tim began his career at Deloitte where he served both as a consulting manager and auditor and specialized in business intelligence application development, financial systems selection and implementation, business process redesign and M&A auditing and accounting.

Tim holds an MBA from Northwestern University's Kellogg School of Management (with Honors), and a Bachelor of Science in business from the University of Minnesota (with Honors).
